

How reliable do you think the firearms examiner's subjective opinion of the bullet comparison is, in this case?

