How strong is the evidence that the defendant's gun was used to fire the shot in the convenience store, in your opinion?