Based on this testimony, how would you rate your understanding of the method described for the examiner's personal bullet comparison?

I understood

5 everything

about half of the method

nothing